Explain in detail the reasons for your position that the newly filed case is related to the earlier filed case.

The newly filed case, which JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. has removed from state court based upon diversity jurisdiction, is related to the earlier-filed case because both cases involve precisely the same plaintiffs, the same defendant, the same factual allegations, the same causes of action, and the same relief sought. Indeed, plaintiffs' complaint in the removed state court action consists of allegations that were taken verbatim from those set forth in their earlier-filed action in this court, except that plaintiffs omitted in their state court complaint the jurisdictional allegations that they set forth in their earlier-filed federal court complaint, apparently in an effort to evade federal jurisdiction and assignment to the same judge. Thus, the newly filed case is not merely related to the earlier-filed case, it is essentially the very same case. See Local Rule for Division of Business 4(b). It is respectfully submitted that the newly filed case should therefore be referred to the same judge, i.e., Judge Naomi Reice Buchwald.
